On Thursday the 24th day of April next, if fair, it not the next fair day, will be exposed to sale, on the premises, for cash or ready tobacco,

LEASE for the life of one person, of the noted valuable plantation, being situated on Patuxent river, on the lower side of Leonard's-creek, whereon Mr. George Wheeler, late of Calvert county, deceased, lived. The person whose life-time the lease is held for, is said to possess a strong constitution and very likely to live to a great age. There are on the premises a good dwelling house almost new, with two rooms on a floor, two brick fire places, a kitchen, quarters, tobacco houses, corn house, and meat house. The plantation in pretty good repair, and some grain sowed; title and terms will be made known on the day of sale. Also will be sold on the same day, the stock of all kinds that belonged to the said deceased, the household and kitchen furniture, the corn and meat, tobacco, and plantation utensils, &c. All persons having claims against the said estate are desired to bring them in that day, properly adjusted, as they may be settled, and all those indebted to the said estate, are desired to make payment on the same day to prevent trouble to themselves and the subscriber, who lives too remote from the place to give any farther attendance for that purpose.

C. WHEELER, administrator.

April 7, 1783.

To be sold to the highest bidder, on the first Saturday in May next, at the late dwelling plantation of John Watkins, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased,

SUNDY negroes of different ages and sexes, some of which will be sold for ready cash, or short credit, and the rest will be sold on two years credit, on giving bond and approved security. The bonds to be taken before the purchasers take the negroes away, if required,

JOHN WATKINS,
BENJAMIN WATKINS, } executors.

March 22, 1783.

NOTICE is hereby given to all whom it may concern, that the subscriber intends to apply to the legislature of this state, at their next session of assembly, for an order to divide the lands of the late Notley Warren, lying on Wicomico river, in Charles county, among his several daughters, or their representatives, agreeable to their said father's will, there being occasion for it, and one of the girls being considerably under age.
